

Christopher Manydeeds

Program Analyst

Bemidji, California, Navajo, and Phoenix Areas

Christopher Manydeeds is an enrolled member of the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe. He joined IHS in 2006 as a Program Analyst. In 1996, Mr. Manydeeds received a Juris Doctorate from the University of Wisconsin Law School, where he was a Fellow of the University of Wisconsin Law School Legal Equal Opportunity Scholarship and a Fellow of the American Indian Graduate program. Before joining IHS, Mr. Manydeeds worked with the Bureau of Indian Affairs Fort Berthold Agency in several capacities — as the Deputy Superintendent of Trust, line officer, acting Superintendent, and Administrative Manager. Mr. Manydeeds has also served as a consultant for the Legal Services Corporation, the Executive Director of the Anishinabe Legal Services; Supervising Tribal Prosecutor for the Red Lake Nation, Red Lake Reservation; Chief Prosecutor for the Assiniboine and Sioux Tribes; and a law clerk for Judge Waldemar Senyk in Ottertail County Court, Fergus Falls, MN. Prior to entering law school, Mr. Manydeeds worked as an American Indian Recruiter for the University of Wisconsin at Madison, Madison, WI.
